

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Tells of Various Entertainments—May Market. Motor Messengers' Revue—Tells "One on Mother"

WILL everybody please "stop, look and loosen" at Vernon Park, Germantown, on Friday, May 24? Or if it rains, on Saturday, May 25. The annual May Market will be held then, and this year the beneficiaries will be the Morton Street Day Nursery and the Women's Permanent Emergency Aid. A very important feature of the fair is the fact that there will be no admission, and every one is very welcome to stop and look even if they don't loosen, although, of course, the loosening will be cordially received.

time, I should say not! I believe it even added to her good time, the naughty child! Well, when she arrived home that night, very, oh! very softly she tiptoed upstairs. But, as luck would have it, mother was already home and called her in to say good night. What should she do? There was only one thing to do and she did it. Drawing her cloak close about her she marched in like a little soldier.

And would you believe me? Mother never saw the dress, never caught even a glimpse of a pink ruffle peeping out from beneath the cloak, nor even suspected that daughter had worn it. To this day she doesn't know it, which only goes to prove the old saying, "What you don't know won't hurt you."

OLD PENN GRADUATE ISSUES A CHALLENGE

Alumni Rails at His Age and Inability to Do Anything in the War

Edmund C. Peechin, Buchanan, Va., one of the oldest alumni of the University of Pennsylvania, has issued a challenge for attendance at Alumni Day, June 15. His challenge is:

"If Brook, of 48; Robins, of 50; and J. Morris, of 51; Rosegarten or Harris, of 52; Hooking, of 53; and Gray, of 54, or any of the old alumni will march in June next I will come all the way from Virginia to tote the 56 banner I cursey my old age. I want to be in France instead of pottering around giving cashing aid to the Red Cross and Liberty Bonds."

TAKES REST FROM WAR WORK

Philadelphians Spend Some Time at White Sulphur Springs, Where Weather is Fine

Philadelphians are enjoying perfect weather at White Sulphur Springs, Va., where the month of May is always delightful. Mr. and Mrs. James Russell Harris, of Philadelphia, arrived on Sunday to spend some time, following Mr. Russell's untiring work with the Y. M. C. A. at Camp Mills and the aviation camp adjoining.

Miss Anne Thomson and Miss A. B. Sykes, who spent a fortnight at the Greenbrier, have returned to Philadelphia. Miss Thomson and Miss Sykes drove to the spring luncheon, and later walked over the mountain and returned to the Greenbrier late in the afternoon. Miss Thomson, who is an earnest worker for the Red Cross, was interested in the old Virginia cakewalk and Red Cross ball given in the old White last week. One hundred dollars was realized for the Greenbrier unit of the Red Cross, and $187 was donated to the branch in the village.

Mr. Thomas Harris Powers, who spent a few days at the Greenbrier, has returned to Hot Springs, Va., and will come here later for an extended visit.

White Sulphur is snapping out a program for work to help win the war. The savings stamp booth, which has been in operation for two weeks, is so popular that it will remain a permanent fixture in the Greenbrier until the end of the war, and it was suggested at the meeting of the committee that a booth be placed at the Casino for the sale of stamps to be used by parties at bridge and by the golfers instead of money.

War gardens are being planted in the village, where several hundred school children will work them.

Visitors are donating many books, magazines and other articles to the department of naval recreation of the women's naval service.

GARDEN ARMY IS LARGER THAN FORCE IN UNIFORM

College Students Enlist for Farm Work and Government Employees Will Help

Washington, May 11.—The United States school garden army already is bigger than the army of the United States, the Department of the Interior announced today. Garden soldiers to the number of 1,250,000 were enlisted at the beginning of May after a six weeks' campaign.

The central western States have enlisted 520,000 boys and girls in the movement. The southern States have enrolled 700,000 and the northeastern and western States each 200,000. New York city alone has 60,000 children in the garden army.

Oklahoma is the banner State, with an enrollment of 150,000, while Texas has 100,000.

At least 80 per cent of male college students will spend their vacations this summer working on farms, according to the Department of Labor. The youths will be lodged for the most part in farm labor camps.

Government employees who have thirty days' leave during the year are being asked by the Federal employment service to spend their vacations working on farms. A "farming reserve" has been organized to assist farmers in Maryland and Virginia.

Annual Affair at Home

Liam J. Clothier Has Many Attractions

Unusual interest is attached to the annual pony and dog show at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clothier, because Captain Alister Campbell, of the Argyle-Sutherland Landers, will be one of the judges in the show.

The affair will be held on Wednesday for the first time will have a night entertainment, with the entire estate lighted with colored lights of all shapes and shades. The entertainment of the evening, the social hour, will make an address at the entertainment and there will be motion pictures. Many supper parties are being arranged and the night portion of the grand premises is to be the most distinctive feature of the entire affair.

The entertainment is divided into parts. Chief among the attractions, it will be the pony show, which was the original idea. Then there will be the dog show, a doll show and a baby show. The baby is not really a show; it is a voting contest with ballots costing ten cents apiece. The dog show is the high one. The living hasn't seen the price of a dog since it was last year. It costs quite a lot to elect a successful candidate, however, the managers of the vote don't require voters to be quite as astute as in some of the other shows. They show in the total.

Mrs. Harry C. Thayer will be one of the hostesses at supper on the grounds and Victor C. Mather, who will direct the show, will be located in the dog show. Captain Campbell will be of particular interest to the youngsters, as his form calls for kilt and the rest of the traditional dress of the Scots.

The dog show is to be judged by children. It will be directed by Miss Emily Clark of Villanova. Post entries will be accepted so that little girls going to the fête may take their dolls with them and enter the grounds. Prizes are for the smallest, prettiest, oldest and best dog and a grand prize will be given for the all-round dog.

The dog show will be held in the morning and afternoon, the judge being Mr. A. Delmont of Wynnewood. Many special prizes have been offered. Puppy, novice, Amateur and open classes will be held in the afternoon. The dog show is quite an important affair and many entries have been made. Miss Mariana W. Gowen is the chairman of the committee.

The war is making itself noticeable in general points of the fare. A war jacket is one of the prizes in the dog show, restaurant and the cake and candy will conform to all of the Hoover regulations. One of the big features will be the way, which will have all sorts of attractions. The affair opens at 11 o'clock and will continue until 11 at night. The managers announce that in the case of rain the show will be postponed until the following day.

Mrs. William J. Clothier, Wynnewood, the general chairman. Other members of the committee in charge include Mrs. Gullie Aertsen, Mrs. William S. Ashbrook, Mrs. Matthew Baird, Mrs. Livingston J. Mrs. James Carstairs, Mrs. Gardner Clark, Mrs. Edgar M. Church, Mrs. Herbert Clark, Mrs. Percy H. Clark, Mrs. Charles H. Clark, Jr., Mrs. Walter Clothier, Mrs. Lloyd Coster, Mrs. G.
